

Barbara May Wade Morris

February 6, 1938 - June 10, 2021

Barbara May Wade Morris, 83, passed away peacefully Thursday, June 10, 2021 with her family beside her. She was the daughter of James Monroe, Jr. and Eddie Blanch (Dunkley) Wade. She was enveloped in peace, without pain, and ready to join our heavenly Father.

Barbara is survived by her husband of 67 years, Donald Ray Morris; her first born, son, Dan Morris and his wife Mary, Mama's extra daughter; and daughter, Donna Michelle (Morris) and husband Billy Robinson, whom she enjoyed cutting up with. "MEME", as she was called by so many, was blessed with three granddaughters. She often said she prayed really hard for Donna to have a daughter, but she didn't realize how hard she prayed! Donna's first born, Kaley Danielle (Madison) and special son in law, Chris Leonard, second daughter, Logan Michelle Madison, MeMe's "Miss Morris", and youngest, Ashlyn Ray Madison, Meme's "Hoot". The pride and love she carried for these girls spilled out for the world to see. Her only great grandchild, Liam James Leonard, would enlarge her heart even more. The love for her family kept her enjoying every part of her earthly journey. Besides, her family, she was a care giver her entire life. It began with the loss of her mama at age 11 and carried through every family member, close friend and even when she was hospitalized, she never stopped asking and worrying about Donald. Surely, she is already busy caring for heaven's needs. As Daddy said, "There was no one else like her!" She will truly be missed.

A funeral service will be held 11 AM, Wednesday, June 16th at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA 23140 and interment will take place 1 PM at Washington Memorial Park, Sandston, VA. The family will receive friends from 4 to 6 PM, Tuesday, also at the funeral home.

“ As her husband, Donald, was quoted as saying... "There was no one like her"; there truly was "no one like her". "Ma" Morris, as I fondly called her, had a heart as big as the world, filled with love and compassion for all people of the world. Family mean't everything to her and she would help anyone in need in any way she could. She had true compassion for anyone who was struggling in life, because she had known such hardship in her own life at an early age. She loved the role of being a wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and caretaker of Donald and her family, and she excelled in each of those roles! She was a wonderful cook and homemaker and she and Donald made quite a team. We didn't get to see her much in more recent years (people get so scattered these days), but we kept promising to do so and thought of she and Donald often. If you were ever fortunate enough to be invited to her home for one of the Morris family parties, especially their Christmas party, you were fortunate, indeed! The historic home, filled with all of those priceless antiques, live Christmas trees, antique Christmas ornaments and wonderful food was a sight to behold! In closing, I'll say this; this world is not a better place without her in it. Our loss is heaven's gain. R.I.P., "Ma" Morris. Your work here is done. Wiley & Fannie Southworth

“ Barbara was more like a sister to my father than a cousin. I still so appreciate her sharing her love of Fontanini with us - it's a tradition we do every Christmas! Her handmade ornaments are as much of a treasure as she was! My world is a little darker without her in it - but I am grateful she's now in my cloud of Saints. I cannot wait to see her again in Heaven. Love, Anne and Billy
