Robert, Diane and Family,

This is a time in our lives that we must use everything our parents have instilled in us and that's to trust and believe that our God has us in the palm of his hands and will never forsaken or leave us, for his grace is sufficient.

Love you Much!

Robert, Patricia, Candace and family prayers for comfort and peace are being sent to the Master on your behalf. For he tells us "to look to the hills from which cometh our help". So at a time like this he's telling us to lean on him. He's ready to share our burden and give our hearts whatever we need now and the days ahead. So, trust that God has you covered and there are many people including my family praying for all of you.
