“ Like you said, Ms. Carol made all of her customers at RiteAid feel like family!! We moved to New Kent in '89 and saw her often. Praying for all of her family! What wonderful memories you all must have of such a wonderful woman!

“ Dearest John and family, I know your world is going to seem so empty without Ms. Carol. But in time some of the pain will fade and your wonderful memories of Ms. Carol will take over. With GOD, those wonderful memories will make you smile and they will bring you comfort. She was so very special to everyone she meet. She had a way of just making you feel loved.
May God bless you and hold you tightly in the days ahead. Let it be a blessing to know that she is up there with God, family and friends.
Love you all, Pinky

“ To: John and all of Carol's beloved family.

About 9 years ago, being fairly new to the area, I needed a seamstress. How lucky, that someone recommended Carol. Upon meeting Carol for the first time, I knew I liked her very much. It didn't take long for us to become friends. Boy, did we love to talk and laugh. Sometimes, I would be there for over an hour, well past the pinning part and I would feel guilty that I was taking up too much of her time. But, she would always reassure me, it was OK. The fact that I won't get the chance to laugh with her again, make me sad. My heart breaks for John, her family and all her friends, who will miss her terribly. Carol was a beautiful soul and I feel privileged to have known her. Rest in Peace, Sweet Carol.

“ To: The Jefferson Family! Please accept my condolences!

I was so saddened to hear of the passing of Carol! I met her over 30 years ago when my Husband & I moved to Charles City. She was a wonderful friend & neighbor. She (and John) has helped my Husband & myself many times with different things. Although I moved away several years ago Carol & I kept in touch through phone calls & cards! She will be missed by so many but we can be assured that she is in a better place & free of pain! May God Bless & Be with each of you at this difficult time!

“ Uncle John and family, May God continue to bless and comfort each of you, as well as give you peace. Thank you so much for sharing Aunt Carol with all of us. I have so many memories of her and Aunt Nellie picking on Mr. Led and Eric. She was always willing to either lend a helping hand or a listening ear. She helped and gave me a lot of encouragement, and love last year during mom's illness. I enjoyed being in her sewing trailer and talking with her when I picked up clothes she had altered or fixed for me. Those are priceless memories I will cherish forever. I can only imagine the family reunion going on in heaven now and the dominoe games with her siblings. Who is cheating or not playing right. Please know we are crying as well as laughing with you about something she said or did. So thankful she is no longer suffering nor in pain. She has definitely run her race, fought a good fight and always kept her faith and trust in her Lord. Well done Aunt Carol, you have been a good and faithful servant. God has taken another beautiful angel home. Love and prayers,
Es

“ Suzanne, Julie and family, thank all of you for being in many parts of my life and sharing your mother and your other family members with the Charles City Community and just, me. Personally, I knew Ms. Carol through her sisters and other relatives at both Charles City Elementary and Charles City Middle Schools on the onset of my career. Then, I knew her from various organizations all over the community. On a more personal note, Ms. Carol sold crafts and sewing items at the location in Providence Forge, which is now Rite Aid. She sold me a doll house kit that is still tucked away. She had a natural customer service smile and compelling way about her that kept me in her presence for as much time as I needed or wanted. As the years passed, we grew in a different kind of love and shared many different experiences along the way. We often stretched open arms and embraced each other to give comfort and joy in God's blessings through Christian experience. More recently, my eyes wept tears of comfort when she sent my family a sympathy card when my husband passed away in February of this year. I am so thankful that God made her a part of my life, as one of the angels sent to take the ride with me through this journey . It is people like Ms. Carol that help us to see and understand why we must lean on God's everlasting arm. Through your recovery, cleanse your hearts by keeping the memories to strengthen your souls and surround yourselves with those who will carry you through. You may weep for a while, but joy will come in the morning.

Sharing your love and loss, Bonnie Gardner

“ Aunt Carol was not only my aunt but also my friend & second mama. She babysat me when I was small & has continued to take care of me even in my adult life. I could call her day or night to borrow sugar, milk, coconut or anything else I needed for baking. She was my "personal grocery store" & would laugh when I called saying , " Yo Mama, you know I am begging again." Her response would always be that she didn't mind because if she had it I was more than welcome to get it. So she then began buying "extras" just to make sure she would have it for me. She was also my cook(salmon & gravy & boiled potatoes) & my sweet tea provider...just had to drink a glass each time I went to her house. The memories I have of/with Aunt Carol are endless & will always be with me. I know she is now walking the streets of gold free of all pain & enjoying being in the presence of her family. So go rest high on that mountain for your work on here is done...

“ To the Jeffersons' and their extended family. I was very saddened to hear of the passing of your loved one. I am going to miss bragging to Ms Carol whenever I won any kind of a prize. She always had something to say. I will especially miss her in the taco booth at the pow-wow. May God bless and keep you in your time of sorrow.
