“ Kay Terry and I are so sorry we werent able to be there for you and family! I never called Harold uncle as he was more like a older brother as he was only 4 yrs older. During my high school days i spent alot of time at granny Waynes and we would play records and dance,dance. He and Terry would play guitar together during some family gatherings. He was so full of life and shared many stories and added some embellishments. God be with you all during this time. Our love is with you today and always. Patty and Terry

“ Uncle Harold was a character and he made every gathering fun regardless of what the gathering was for. There is hardly a childhood story that my daddy Thomas Wayne Estes Jr tells that does not involve Harold and Eddie Wayne. They were more like cousins/brothers because they were so close in age. My goodness the mischief (and I use that term loosely) that they would get into. When Uncle Harold walked into a room you knew a presence had entered and it was always happy. I treasure my memories of Uncle Harold but I treasure daddies memories even more. Sending my love and prayers to Aunt Kay and the rest of the family.

“ Uncle Harold was adored by my "twig" of the family tree. Daddy looked up to him so much. Spending time with Uncle Harold and Aunt Kay during the Summer was a delight and I treasure those times - there was always lots of fun to be had. Swimming, boating, watching he and Kay dance together when they had the notion... We were eating out one time and I got fish with Milk to drink. He told me the combination of Milk and fish at a meal was a toxic combination, I must have been 12 or 13. I changed my beverage straight away. Whether that is a fact (or not,) I have no clue - I can tell you even to this day it is a no-no in my house. He was larger than life and a presence to behold - one never knew what kind of laughs or fun he had in store when he entered any space. He was full of warmth, love, generosity, advice, and wisdom. After Daddy got hurt, he and Kay would come by our house in Concord to visit after their beloved VT games and our entire home would light up with the positive energy emanating from those two. He was simply amazing.

“ I truly cannot think of any wonderful childhood memories that doesn't include my Uncle Harold. He was always full of life, smiles and laughter. He was a very positive person in my life. I love him, even though I didn't get the chance to let him know regularly. Some of my fondest memories of him was the summers, he would take Teresa and I skiing. Oh and the year the guys let Teresa and I go hunting with them. I still giggle about that, I know the hunters weren't happy with us, but we caught all the dogs that year. I Teresa and I yelling back and forth about which dogs we caught. And yes the deer got away, but we had the dogs. He was always filled with love and his family was always first and for most in his life. The last time I talked with him, he just beamed about his grandchildren, and how proud he was of Teresa, Bubba and Warren, and how much he would be lost if Kay wasn't there to keep him going in the right direction. I do know in my heart he is out of pain and looking down on us with a huge smile, showering us all with love.

“ One tall Uncle in my book, I am not talking about height. Uncle Harold I am so saddened by your passing, who will keep me informed now? We grew so close in the last 23 years, you shared your life, and family with me. Aunt Kaye, I cannot image the pain you are going though at this time, if there is anything I can do, please please don't hesitate to call. I am so sorry.

“ Kay and Family,
You all are in my prayers. Harold was always the life of our family gatherings. He kept us smiling and singing. Dan so enjoyed his day with you both while Ed and I attended a Hercules function.
Give my love to the family!!!
