“ We're so sorry to hear our dear friend has lost her courageous battle. Irene and George were our neighbors and dear friends. George and I would discuss the latest current events while Barbara and Irene talked about quilts, sewing machines and fabrics. We've been friends for many years and even though we moved, we still would call and keep up together and it was always nice to get their Christmas card. We will miss Irene and know she's resting peacefully in Heaven. God Bless you, Irene.

“ My family met Irene and George at our church many years ago. Every Sunday we would meet after mass at Bojanles. We loved having coffee and sharing stories. My children would refer to George and Irene as their grandparents part 2. When it became too difficult for Irene to attend mass, we would visit them at home. Irene enjoyed making treats for our visits. We are saddened by the loss of Irene. Having recently lost my father, it is hard to lose another special person so soon. We will miss you and promise to be there for George. RIP sweet friend. The Nash Family.

“ Irene was an amazing quilter who gifted family and friends with gorgeous handmade quilts, pillows and runners. She gifted me by sharing her quilting skills and knowledge with me. Our twenty year friendship was forged stitch by stitch as we spent many happy hours quilting together. Thank you Irene for your special friendship. You will be greatly missed. Chris and I extend our condolences to George and family. May God comfort you in your loss.
Love, Martha and Chris
