

James "Willard" Redman

September 10, 2020

James "Willard" Redman, 78, of Providence Forge passed away peacefully at home on September 10th, 2020. Willard was a self-employed construction worker building hundreds of homes in New Kent County for decades, and was well-known for his attention to detail in everything he did. He loved basketball and played up until he was in his 60's. Willard also enjoyed working outside, whether taking care of the yard, or building and fixing anything he could. He took a special pride in building things for his family, including his wife's dream home.

Willard was preceded in death by his loving wife of 56 years, Judy Redman, as well as his mother and father, Elza and Oleta.

He is survived by three daughters, Sandra Hunkele, Cynthia Condyles (Mark), Dianna Palmer (Kenneth); one son, Scott Redman (Angela); 14 grandchildren; and four great grandchildren. He is also survived by his three brothers, Richard, Leon, and Elza Jr.; and sister, Irene Wyant; he was the youngest of the five siblings.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday, September 16th, 6PM at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge.

Due to Covid-19, masks and social distancing are required; seating will also be limited.

Events

SEP Memorial Service 06:00PM

16

Vincent Funeral Home, Providence Forge Chapel
9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA, US, 23140

Comments

“ We are having two trees planted in memory of you, my sweet cousin.... One in MD and one in VA.... I love you but I know you are at peace with our Heavenly Father. Until we meet again.... your cousin Peggy

Peggy A. (Redman) Marram - 3 hours ago

“ We were so sorry to hear of the passing of Willard. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers. Donnie and Sherrill

Donnie & Sherrill Smith - September 15 at 07:23 PM

“ Dennis Keen and Me (Boo) were just talking about Redman this pass Friday as we playing basketball. He will be miss, we played basketball together on the same team in New Kent for over 20 years.

Charles Brwon - September 14 at 08:34 AM

“ Tami Lyn Norris sent a virtual gift in memory of James "Willard" Redman

Tami Lyn Norris - September 12 at 01:00 PM

“ Tami Lyn Norris lit a candle in memory of James "Willard" Redman

Tami Lyn Norris - September 12 at 12:59 PM

“ I jumped out of many windows running from you as a child... those days still puts a smile on my face!! I loved and still do love you...

Peggy A. (Redman) Marram - September 15 at 05:49 PM

“ I was 18 when I met this kind , funny, careing person who was like a dad to me. I was always greeted with a smile and a loveing hug. Oh so many memories I know of him and Judy.. A wonderful person always full of jokes... Never will I ever forget the feeling they both gave me , even though it's been so many years ago and I'm now 48 I can still see his smile .. They loved their children and grands even then, He will be missed and thought of as memories cross my mind... Rest now Willard and unite with Judy and keep your light on to shine on all those you love and love you.. God was given another Angel ... Thoughts and love sent miles away but in my heart forever... Love to you all... Kim and family.....

kim melton - September 11 at 09:11 PM