They went on to be responsible for extensive home building in the area. In mid-life, he sold out his share of Nice Brothers to return to his passion, farming. He bought his first farm in James City Country & several years later, NiceView Farm in Charles City County where he resided until his death.

Louis liked to say that he had a great life. That he had done all of his life just exactly as he wanted to do. He left here the same way, at home on his farm surrounded by all of his children, with so much pride & dignity. Job well done, Dad. Godspeed to greener pastures. There will be a celebration of life at one o'clock on Tuesday, November 12, 2019 at Corinth United Methodist Church, 23 W. Williamsburg Road, Sandston, VA 23150. There will be no visitation & burial will be private in a family cemetery at NiceView. “ Although I was very sadden to hear the news of Uncle Louis passing, it rekindled many wonderful childhood memories for me. There isn't much of my life that didn't have my Aunt Lois and Uncle Louis in it. The many, many weekends up on the farm were some of my greatest times in life. To my cousins, David, Linda and Ricky, I know your hearts are heavy at this time, but the memories of your parents should help you through this difficult time. Your Dad, and Mom, were very special people and adored by all that met them. Family was foremost and above it all, their world to them, and they couldn't have asked for any better family then the growing family you have given them.
God Bless you all.

“ The Fragale family sends its prayers to the entire Nice family, and thanks to God that Louis Nice gave so much to the world. May his memory be eternal in the eyes of God.

“ Dear Nice Family,I so loved your Dad and was so proud of him as my uncle. He had a personality that you don't find in many people. He put things out there just as he saw them and you knew where you stood with him. I've had so many fun times up on both farms. Many a discussion has come up at the kitchen table with your Mom and Dad that I've learned from. Even though he could sound gruff sometimes, he actually was soft at heart and had a heart of gold. We've lost a patriarch and a good man. Peace be with you,Uncle Louis and family.

“ Mr. Nice was a friend of mine. He was a hard worker, He was a honest person, He was a true family man, And he was a well above average farmer.
