

Deaconess Mamie Jones Bradby

October 24, 1925 - March 17, 2019

Deaconess Mamie J. Bradby greeted her friend and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Sunday, March 17, 2019. Mamie was preceded in death by her husband, Deacon Samuel Bradby. She is survived by two step-daughters, Kathleen Carter and Loretta Crawley. Her surrogate daughter, Jasmine D. Brown, whom she raised from two weeks old. Devoted niece, Cathy Brown; great-niece and nephew, Jacquelyn and Jeremiah Brown. Two sisters Iris Jeanette Adkins and Hilda J. Cotman (Stanley). A host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

Mamie enjoyed both cooking and sewing; but above all, she loved Jesus. She was employed with Charles City County Public Schools for many years and took great delight in serving the best home cooked meals in the cafeteria. Mamie was a member of Little Elam Baptist Church where she sung in the Senior Choir, and participated as a member of the Trustees, Ushers, and Sunday School Ministry. She especially loved children and she mentored them to love Jesus and to be kind to those you meet. Her favorite hymn was "Walking in Jerusalem Just Like John" which she sung often. Mamie was a true woman of God; she endured to the end with courage and dignity. Although her memory failed her, she still knew Jesus was her friend.

“ I remember Ms. Mamie from the many years working with her at CCCES and later as my children attended. Even then you always saw her flashing that smile of hers. May we all find peace in knowing how much she loved the Lord.

“ Aunt Mamie I never got to meet you but felt like I knew you through Cathy and her stories and care of you. I can only rejoice that you have traded your earthly body for a heavenly crown . I know you are rejoicing in heaven.

“ Aunt Mamie was a soldier in God's army. She would keep you on the straight and narrow but she did it with love. She loved everyone and was most of all she was kind. She walked in love and she has the true spirit of God. Hallejuah for her life. Family, we too have this same spirit. Share your love of Christ too, be genuine and be bold witnesses for Christ.
