“ We are so sad to have missed the memorial service for Roy. We have an abundance of great memories of gatherings at the Potter home where Esther, Carol and Ginny always put out a bountiful feast with food harvested from Roy's garden and fishing or hunting activities. For two "come-here" people it was an education to heaven, and a very special part of moving into the river community more than three decades ago. Love to Ginny, John and family with full comfort that Roy is reunited with Esther and Carol.

“ Roy and his wife Esther both were good friends of the Hite's for many years. We have many fond memories of their visits to the farm and our visits to their home. We have not seen Roy in a number of years now but we visited by phone and I sent him cards. Larry remembers playing the card game 45 with Sugarmama & Sugardaddy and Roy & Esther.

Larry would play his mothers hand for her.

Our condolences to the family.

Much Love,

Larry & Penny Hite
