“ I never had the pleasure of knowing Ginny very well, but I worked in the same building she did. She hardly knew me, but was always very friendly, yet focused on doing the best job she could for our Pentagon clients. She always dressed and acted like the true professional she was. I think she was a great role-model for some of the younger employees. If you looked and acted like Ginny did, you couldn't go too far wrong. -- William Sheleski

“ Ginny was a wonderful friend. I have known her since she was attending Longwood College where she was a roommate of my cousin Carolyn Meadows...When she and her sister, Rose, and Carolyn moved to Washington, I visited often as I lived in Richmond...

After a few years when my husband Jack and I were transferred around, we moved to Williamsburg where Ginny was a frequent weekend guest....We both loved Ginny and we shared many wonderful weekends together.. Ginny was dedicated to the principles of the Republican Party, consequently, we attended many fun parties together...The last big event we all attended was the Christening of the John Warmer Submarine...Ginny called me and said, I have tickets for you and made you a hotel reservation....She was kind and

Very clear that it was a “done deal”.. She would call and say she had some of Marvin’s

Fresh garden vegetables for us....And she came with a cooler full which was a treat....

Often, she would start back to DC late evening...Jack would tell her “ No Way...you are spending the night.... She was a selfless person, kind, and emphatic about her beliefs....

She will be sorely missed....Ann McGee

“ A more energetic participant in the debate of national security issues would be hard to imagine! Great loss.

“ Ginny Sniegon was a great American and a solid tennis player! She brought so many together on the tennis courts and through her incredible generosity--her lively spirit and sense of humor a driving force in all our friendships.

I remember when I first met Ginny, we were at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs enjoying Republican fellowship. She arrived at the cocktail party soaking wet, having just fallen into the pond as she admired the water lilies. Completely unfazed, she joined the festivities and didn't miss a beat. A true original, Ginny Sniegon will be missed. Deepest sympathy to her family, friends and colleagues.

“ John 9:4

“I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.”

King James Version (KJV)

This verse from John is quoted on the clock tower of Park Cities Baptist Church in Dallas, and it personifies Ginny, who lived for her work and worked hard until December 11, the day before she was admitted to the hospital.

I always believed she would die at her desk, but she lived on for a month after her last day at the office.

She phoned me from the ambulance on December 12 to let me know that she could not attend a dinner for General Petraeus the next evening.

Ginny was kind to all she knew and generous to many. Her contributions to the Republican Party are legendary.

She would have been with me last night at a function for Governor Hogan had she been well. I went along by myself, and just arrived when Marvin called with the news.

I missed her last night and will continue to miss her. She was a loyal friend.
