“ Through my many years at WCUSA, I was lucky enough to meet many amazing people. However, Brady Willey was one of the most amazing, wonderful, awesome individuals I have ever meet. We bonded from the very start. Sharing the same love for America, dogs, ROCK AND ROLL, The Big Lebowski, grilled meat, and pro wrestling. As our friendship grew the more amazing he became. I no longer dreaded the Friday close shift If I looked at the schedule and saw that I was closing with Brady. Those night shifts I would have worked for free because he never made it feel like work. I was being allowed to hang out with a young man who I looked up to and was honored to be around and boy did we have a time. From ride nights, to spilling a whole chest of cakes for hot spots in front of the food service supervisor, and working Halloween at Busch Gardens. I cherished every moment that I was with Brady. Brady had a ability to connect with anybody on all levels. Coworkers admired and loved him. On a fishing trip to Nags Head with Cuz, and I, Ol Brady befriended a wild dude, he nicked named "Portsmith". Brady could make a complete stranger feel welcomed in seconds. He cared for all people and never prejudged. This is one of the many things I admired most. I also admired Brady's love for his family. His eyes proud and full of joy when telling me one of his moms favorite KISS songs is New York Groove. That is a beautiful connection, Brady again taught me a valuable life lesson. Love your family and listening. Another valuable lesson Brady schooled me in was never eat the fried oysters at Hooters. I will miss many things about Brady, the way his voiced boomed when he said "yeah", when he finished a story with "jokes over," and how he pulled and fast one on me on April fools day. Brady I know your up there reading this and you will soon be running the aquatic program in heaven. In the mean time, hold a spot for me on your team, and when we meet again put me on the first close shift you are working.

Thank you for your kind post Bobby. It really means a lot. Brady always liked hanging out with you. In and outside of work.

Bobby you were a special person for Brady. You were a role model for him. I felt as if you really looked out for when he started at work and in other ways too...I never got to meet you but I felt as if I knew you through Flora and Brady. We had some baby chicks in the spring that are now hens. The little rooster was called Bobby by Brady.

“ I worked with Brady several years ago at Water Country. I was going through a particularly rough time and my mood was often down in the dumps. He always seemed to be able to lift my spirits with his sense of humor. He was an such incredibly nice person and it's so sad to hear that he's gone.
