“ I will always remember Aunt Alease. She was always so kind and loving. She was always happy to see me and hear from me. She would call me often to check on me. I loved our conversations. Aunt Alease you are well loved and we will miss you. There's no better place to be than with Jesus, our Lord and Savior. RIP until we meet again.

To my dear kind, sweet and funny cousin. She always called me Edna Braxton because I looked like my mom and I would call her Latt Braxton because she looked like her dad then we would laugh and talk nonstop.
