

Alice Newland King

February 25, 1952 - June 13, 2022

Alice Newland King, 70, of Charles City, passed away after a long battle with cancer.

Alice loved cooking and enjoyed hosting cookouts for family and friends. She also found leisure time in reading, doing puzzles, crocheting and knitting. Alice was a retired bus driver of over 40 years of service for the Charles City County Public Schools. Her dedication to the kids and the school system was evident in her longevity on the job. She is loved and will be missed by many. Alice was preceded in death by her baby sister, Debbie Perdue.

She is survived by her husband of 51 years, Gaynor King; three boys, Michael King (Tracy), L.J. King (Stephanie) and Rodney King; eight grandchildren; three sisters and a host of friends.

A memorial service will be held 11AM Thursday, June 16, 2022 at Vincent Funeral Home, Providence Forge, VA.

“ Alice was one of most thoughtful and caring persons I know. She's my niece and though life changed our paths, I grew up with her and loved her as I always will.

God Bless you Alice, I know you're with Him †

“ I'm sadden to hear of Alice passing. She will be missed by many. I have lots of good memories growing up and spending time with my cousin and her siblings. She always wanted others to be happy and she was very loving.

My sympathy to the entire family!

May God comfort your hearts at this most difficult time.

RIP sweet Alice.

Sorry to hear about Alice. I remember Alice coming to see and visiting us for a few days one summer. My brother and I were around 7 and 8. From what I can remember Alice was a sweet and caring person. My mother, brother and I enjoyed that visit. R I P Alice
