

Angela White Robins

August 20, 1965 - January 3, 2021

Angela White Robins, 55, of West Point, formerly of Newport News, passed away on January 3, 2021.

Angela was well traveled, living in places such as Hawaii, Texas, and the Middle East. She enjoyed taking walks along trails and beaches with her dog, Rusty. Angela loved spending time with her family and being out in the sun. She grew up riding horses, enjoyed dirt bikes, and preferred a truck over a car any day. Angela had a love of martial arts and loved to shoot targets.

Angela was preceded in death by her mother, Monica Druschke.

Angela is survived by her two sons, Timothy Hanks and Brian Robins (fiancée, Joelene Lind); her father, Paul White and his wife; three sisters, Paula Moon, Allison Lind, Dianne Newman; brother, Chris Baker; several nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles, in-laws and out-laws, and friends of all kinds. She got along with everyone.

A memorial service will be held 2pm, Friday, January 8 at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, Va. Please observe all necessary Covid-19 precautions.
