“ I met Anijah at the Kingdom Hall and briefly spoke to her. I did not know that she was ill when I met her. What I remember about her is those beautiful eyes and a lovely smile To be battling a serious illness she wore a smile on her face. Truly the mark of a champion. She had the determination to attend meetings to keep her hope alive down to the end realizing at such a tender age this life was not all there is. As a little soldier she fought a battle that ended momentarily having an undying faith. She wanted to live under a government that would be filled with peace and righteousness. (Matthew 6.), (2nd Peter 3:13) This world also would be one where sickness would not exist (Isaiah 33:24). To keep her memory alive remember the warm and beautiful smile, the quiet spirit, and how she loved people. I would often hear Tammy speak about her and her love for the bible. Dear family members and all who are mourning this loss remember how hard she fought a battle which was ongoing. Remember the good times when you all were together and shared happiness. Knowing in the future you will see her again alive and well. This is promised in the bible that those who are in the memorial tombs like Job will hear his voice and come out. (Job 14: 14,15). I am sending love, prayers, and my deepest sympathy. What is important in life is not always the length of days a person may have but what they accomplish as they journeyed from day to days.

“ Anijah made a lasting impression on many of us at our Kingdom Hall. For a child of her age, she had a good understanding of the hope Jehovah puts before us. She was tired of sickness and looked forward to a world without sickness. Just a few weeks ago she told aunt Tammy " I really want to go to Jehovah's Paradise" Luke 23:43 My wife will miss holding her during our Sunday meetings. I will miss her hug and smile. Our hope is to see her again. John 5:28-29 May the family be comforted to know that Anijah touched the hearts of so many.

“ To lose a child is a terrible thing to go through, my prayers are with the family although we've never met. May Jehovah be with you to comfort you during this time of grief and sorrow. Anijah is sleeping in death; awaiting to hear the voice of Jesus for her to awaken from sleep just as Lazarus did. She will awaken to a paradise earth which is one of Jehovah's promises at Revelation 21:3,4. Sincere condolences for your loss.

“ I only had the privilege of meeting this sweet faced baby once and she left an impression on me that will last until I see her again in the new system! Her suffering has ended and I pray that her family finds comfort in the PROMISE of a resurrection to eternal life in a world where sickness, pain and death NO LONGER exists. My thoughts are with you all at this time.
