

Anna Charity Miles

July 30, 1931 - December 24, 2023

Anna Rebecca Charity Miles at 92, departed her life on December 24, 2023, at her home in Charles City, Virginia. Anna was next to the last of eight children born to the late Elba Charity and Beatrice C. Charity.

She received her education in the county along with her siblings at Wayside Elementary School and Ruthville High School. Anna became a member of the St. John Baptist Church as a young girl and served diligently until her sickness. She was a part of the Senior Choir Missionary Ministry, the Steering Committee, Sunday School, and many other organizations.

On August 23, 1947, she married the late Harry Cornelious Miles, Sr. and to that union three children were born. Anna was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother.

Anna was employed by M & B Headwear and Virginia Garment as a seamstress. She served as a “practical” nurse in the community with her knowledge of cleaning wounds and changing bandages. She ministered to the youth through her wisdom of life and the scriptures. Anna loved reciting poetry throughout the county at churches and many different organizations. One of her favorite poems was “Mother to Son” by Langston Hughes.

In addition to her parents, Elba and Beatrice Charity, Anna was predeceased by six siblings, Elba, Bernard, Ernest and Deuteronomy Charity, Alberta Hamilton, and Jean Charity.

She leaves to rejoice in her loving memory a devoted daughter, Ruby Paige (Royce); two sons, Anthony Miles (Susan) and Harry Miles Jr.; one grandson, Jermaine Miles (Luketia); three granddaughters, Felicia Brown (Bert), Kendra Richardson, and Tiffany Harper (Kevin); twelve great-grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Bernice C. Miles; three sisters-in-law, Jean J. Charity, Abbie Talley, and Ruby Bowman; and a special friend, Princetta Smith. Many nieces, nephews, and friends will cherish her memory.

A funeral service will be held 10am, Saturday, December 30, 2023, at St. John Baptist Church, 8131 Roxbury Rd, Charles City, VA 23030. A viewing will be held one hour prior at the church.

“For none of us lives for ourselves alone, and none of us dies for ourselves alone. If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.

“ To Ruby, Anthony, Harry, Grandchildren and family cousin Moss will be truly missed and we send our prayers and condolences to you all. We do thank the Lord for granting her to be here for 92 years and blessed her not to lay around and suffer. We know she is now resting with our Savior and we say thank you. May you all feel comfort at this time keeping all the wonderful memories you shared with our love.

“ Sincerest sympathies to Ruby, Anthony, Harry and the entire family of “Miss Moss.” Mrs. Moss was a delightful person, fun to be around, filled with wisdom and could recite lengthy poems at the drop of a hat. My mom truly adored her and they talked on the phone daily. She will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her. We pray that the family will find comfort in knowing that others care and share in your sorrow. May God grant you peace that surpasses all understanding during this trying time. May precious memories keep her forever in your hearts.
