“ Mom, I am so sorry our plans failed. Everyone was so happy to have you coming home but... God took you the day before unexpectedly. Although it hurts, I know that through God, you are pain free now. You have reunited with the loved ones who preceded you and someday I will unite with you again as well. In your memory, I promise that I will carry on your generosity to help others in any way possible. I miss you and I love you more than I can express. God bless you.
