“ Jack, NiNi, Mike and all of the family,

Sending my heartfelt condolences to you all. I'm praying for you all to get comfort in the fact she loved all of her family unconditionally.

Barbara was such a strong lady. This is hard to believe. I thought of her as invincible. I am privileged to have known her.

Please know I am only a phone call away if anything is needed.

“ When I was able to sit with Barbara on the porch, she would tell me what each tree was, and together we would identify the different birds. Those were such joyful, relaxing times we spent together. I want her family and friends to know that I will miss having those opportunities again. My heart and prayers go out to all her family and friends. Rest in Peace dearest Barbara.

“ Her family, friends and community will certainly miss her. Barbara was a special person who did so much for others and did not want any credit for her actions. We are all better for having spent time in her presence. She loved her family and each of them worshipped her. Thank you for sharing her with us. God speed and God bless.
