“ I met Bobbie at the Cemetery. My father is buried right behind her daughter in law and she was there one Saturday when I came to visit my deddys grave. She was really nice and we talked about racing (I'm a HUGE Davey Allison fan and she is a Bobby Allison fan) and politics. She told me about her upbringing and we just talked. I had seen the past few weeks a new grave in front of my deddys and wondered who it was and today I saw her grave stone and was just taken a back. I am very sorry for yalls loss. She was a sweet person and I was hoping to see her again pull up in her white thunderbird. 😞

“ I met Bobbie at Nabisco. She was a good co-worker and became a good friend. Robert and I always had a good time at the races with her. My heart goes out to her children and grandchildren, I know they will miss her. Such a lovely lady...

Thoughts and prayers for her family. Arthur and I knew Bobbie from working with her at Nabisco. She was a sweet lady. I just saw her last year at the Food Lion and she was beautiful as always. So very sorry for your loss. 😞💔🕊

In memory of my best friend Barbel whom I have known for 61 years and will truly miss talking to her just about every week. We have been through some good times and some bad times, but we always came through it all with the help of God. Our two boys and Barbel's kids used to play together often. One thing I would like to mention is, our kids wanted to put on a play of the Nativity and their prop began to blink. The prop was to be the Baby Jesus. Barbel and I had to turn away because we were laughing so hard. This is a memory of long ago and never forgotten. My last thought for all who read this, please get your Bibles out and read Ecclesiastes 3: 1-10. Or the whole book of Ecclesiastes. It is very interesting. Love you Barbel and will miss all our phone conversations. God bless.
