

Beverly Ann Williams

October 4, 1948 - October 19, 2018

Beverly Ann Williams entered eternal rest on Friday, October 19, 2018 at Henrico Doctor's Hospital following a lengthy illness. She was formerly a resident of Thirty Third Street and most recently a resident at Westport Rehabilitation & Nursing Center. Beverly was predeceased by her parents, Willie and Rannie Williams. She was born on October 4, 1948.

As an active member of Thirty First Street Baptist Church, she participated in several organizations at an early age until her failing health. Beverly was especially devoted to the missionaries.

Ms. Williams was a graduate of Armstrong High School and Virginia Union University where she received a Bachelor's degree in Education. For a number of years, Beverly taught English at her alma mater (AHS) where she retired due to health challenges. At Armstrong, Beverly was a team player who was very supportive of the administrative staff and her co-workers. She loved her job teaching young people and impacting their lives. Beverly enjoyed reading, television, socializing with her friends, co-workers and lunch buddies. She was a pleasant individual and a good friend who also loved her family.

Beverly's survivors include her good friend, Carolyn, devoted cousins, Mrs. Eddie N. Patrick and William Callaham, her daughter, Sharon Kirksey, her nurse, Angela Heiskell, special friends, Constance D. Brown, Marinda A. Brown, Linda Brown-Nick and Kirk Jones; special Thirty First Street Baptist Church family and Westport Rehabilitation & Nursing Center Staff.

A burial will take place 11 a.m. Friday October 26, 2018 at Oakwood Cemetery, 3101 Nine Mile Rd, Richmond, VA 23223. A memorial service will take place immediately following the burial at Thirty First Street Baptist Church, 823 N 31st St, Richmond, VA 23223.
