“ To the Bates / Turner families my condolences to you at this heartbreaking time. Every time I saw Bonnie she always had a smile, and blew as she passed me in the yard , one day came in and talked on her way to her moms, this past summer I saw her at WAWA and we talked , she had one of her "babies" with her...she was always a pleasant person and was a very sweet young lady , may she rest in eternal peace and to her familyshe will always be with you....

“ Belinda, although we never had the same friends in school, I fondly remember meeting you and Bonnie when I started Rolfe and thinking what beautiful sisters. My heart has been filled with sadness for days thinking about what she and all of you have been going through. Looking at her picture, seeing that pretty smile and those striking eyes, I just wish I could have talked to her and hugged her and let her know everything would be okay. Grieving is a process to healing and remembering the best of her, even her precious kitty will grieve, be strong and know that everyone is praying for your family, even those of us who only knew briefly years ago.

My deepest sympathies and prayers to everyone. You will be in my thoughts in the many days ahead.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your loss. May you find comfort in the words written at John 6:40, where God promises to bring back to life those we have lost in death by means of a resurrection. In the future He will also do away with our enemy, death.(Isaiah 25:8) This gives us the wonderful hope of being reunited with our loved ones forever. Until then, I hope the memories of Bonnie and these promises from God comfort you now and in the days to come.

“ Belinda,

I realize I have not stayed in touch with you or your sister.

Please, believe how truly fond I've been, of you both, always.

[Climbing into the way-back machine:]

Bonnie and I, and a bunch of other students i don't recall, were in the JRMS auditorium for an end of the year, 8th grade, after-school, art project... or something similar.

We were chatting, and I made a lame joke; like I do.

Bonnie's face lit up that dark auditorium with the broadest possible smile and a twinkle in her golden-flaked eyes. I'll never forget it. She GLOWED with beauty and joy.

This is how I will remember her, forever.

Regretfully, the teacher/sponsor arrived at this moment, and our conversation ended.

Summer came and went, and we rarely crossed paths in high school.

It's my fault, and my loss, for not trying harder to know you and your sister, better.

Without exception, Bonnie was approachable, smiling, and kind, whenever I did see her.

I wish we had all known each other, as adults.

But more, I wish our present contact was for a different reason.

Belinda, I am so, so sorry. You have been in my heart and have never left my thoughts, this past week. Please know how highly I have always regarded you and your sister, even though I have never expressed it, before.

A swift return for your peace of mind, and nothing less, is my wish, for you.

I will carry you in my heart, for many days to come.

*All my love,
Ken*
