He was a source of strength and inspiration, always willing to lend a helping hand or offer words of encouragement, even in the face of adversity.

Brendon never met a stranger and had a magnetic personality. He was witty and sharp tongued, but also had the biggest and most giving heart of anyone Brendon loved martial arts, shooting at the range, making salads and salsas, and entertaining friends. He was a natural comic and a loyal friend with a large circle of both civilian, active duty and retired military buddies. Along with his friends, he leaves behind his saddened mom Deborah, his partner Debbie, aunts, an uncle, and several cousins to cherish his memory and remarkable talents.

We love you, Brendon.

“ I lived in the same 4-person suite as him freshman year at UC Davis, I remember I was born 4 days after him. Didn't know he's no longer with us, rest in peace. He was always fun and witty to be around and I remember he would always destroy everyone in GoldenEye 007 on the Nintendo 64.

“ Went to berkeley high school with this wonderful gentleman. He was so funny,cool, we bonded over hip hop and martial arts. I saw him once at uc davis where my friends went to college, and once again at the berkeley ymca right before he joined the service. One of the most authentic thru and thru guys I've ever met. May God bless you brother. -Stevie D. Berkeley,CA. C/O 98'
