“ *I met Brian in 1996/7 when I was still a kid. He was a good friend of my Mom and Stepfather. I remember he would take me to the movies (we saw The Fellowship of the Ring in theaters, and Star Wars Ep III when they just released). Brian was always a joy to be around, for me. He didn't care that I wasn't related to him, he would hang out and play video games with me and always loved giving me pointers and joking around. I remember his booming laugh. I thank him a lot for introducing me into my favorite hobby for over 20 years now - when I was 12 he invited me to play D&D with his brother David, his wife Mindy, and their friend Micah, and I remember just being blown away by how cool my first D&D game was. To this day I still play and DM. I hope his family and his son Michael are well and shout out to David who also helped me understand the TTRPG hobby. I still think about Brian and how I wish I spent time with him when we were both living in Richmond. Rest in peace, Brian!*

“ It's been a little more then 4 years that a havent seen my father I still cant get used to it. I remember every night he use to call, he use would always end it with I love you and i now know how much i miss it, at the moment I'm crying because most of the people on here I dont even know I only know some family friends and some of my uncles its warning to know that my father had a positive effect on the people he knew even if you fought you still had a great relationship with him happy late birthday dad I love ya

Love michael

*Michael,
You were the light in your Dads eye.
I met your Dad before you were ever born.
I miss him myself, he had a way of saying things that would brighten anyone's day. And if not he would laugh and make me laugh also.
He was a very special friend.
He is in heaven looking at you and very proud of you.
Any time you want to talk give me a shout 8045360162.*

“ Brian ... it's been 3 years and it seems like forever. Things have changed so much since you and Dad have passed. I didn't realize how much we talked and did things together. I miss you calling me when I had days off asking if you wanted to do something. You were the only one who kept up with my crazy work schedule. When I have the time I just ride around and listen to music with no particular place to go, like we used to when we were young. I miss those days so much. I know you are doing well now, I just wish the rest of us here were doing better. I miss you and love you with all my heart bro, Happy Birthday - your brother David

“ Just a great guy...with a quick wit and uncanny ability to make people laugh, he will be missed. He kept people awake during midnight shift, that would normally be in a coma. He was just a good person that enjoyed life, and enjoyed the people around him. Carry on Brian.

“ It is with great sadness that myself and all of the staff at Virginia Foot and Ankle Center learned of Brian's passing. It was my pleasure to have gotten to know Brian and Helen so well over the last year. We will all miss his sense of humor and cheerful attitude even during the trials he faced. Brian you will be missed by all of us here.

“ I met Brian when he was a apprentice in the union and he also worked at pizza hut. He sure was a great friend who knew how to cheer you up and lend you an ear when you needed someone to talk to. I know that he has everyone in heaven cracking up and laughing. I'm grateful to have had, but a moment, of my life enriched by having known Brian.

How sad it is to part ways with our brothers on Earth, but a joy to dwell in thy house not made by hands in heaven. Till we all meet again.

“ We had some really good times together bro. I think Heaven was getting a bit boring and needed someone to liven it up. God sure did pick the right one for that. I love you and I'll miss you until the day I get to see you again.
