I was so happy to meet a person like Brian. he did my yard for me in 1998 and I had a friend forever. He always had a great smile on his face for everyone. He will be missed however I know he is meeting with his mom and enjoying eternal life.

“ If you were Brian's friend it was for life. He had shoulder as big as the moon and all of us waitresses from the West Point Rest. All cried on them and he never turned us away. So many memories with the whole family. He will be missed and I know Mom Webb will be waiting for him with the angels to welcome him home where he will suffer no more. Rest In Peace my dear friend and we will gather again at the restaurant in the sky. Love to the Webb family wish I could be there to hug you all.
