“ Janice, Scott and Roy...I just heard of Bryan's passing late yesterday!

*I am so sorry I did not know sooner.
I know there is nothing anyone can do but pray for the family. I believe he is in heaven with his dad. He will be sitting on a cloud out over the river keeping an eye on all of you!
I have always envied the closeness of your family. May this closeness bring strength during this time.*

Love and prayers!

“ I was only privileged to meet Brian but one time, but that was all I needed for him to leave a loving lasting impression on me. He was a true friend to my son Chris and was so supportive of him at a time when he was at the lowest part in his life. As a mother my heart breaks for you, your family and all of his friends, he will be greatly missed by all who were fortunate enough to have him as a part of their life. My heart and prayers are with you 😞

“ Beloved Family, there are no words I could find for comfort. My heart is broken too ... your sweet Bryan is gone. The joy is that he is with his Dad and all our departed loved ones with Jesus and his confusion is no more. He has found peace and as hurtful as it is for us to try to cope with Bryan no longer being with us in person, his memory will only give joy. He is so much loved and we were blessed for the time God gave us. I know he touched so many ... Aunt Judy loves you Bryan. Keeping my sister Janice in my prayers and my nephews Scott, Regina and Roy, Crystal and all their children and grandchildren. Love you all and forever in my prayers.
