“ Rest in Peace Calvin. I will never forget that time you try to help my car out that got stuck in the snow during the blizzard of 96 when you and i was living in Hopewell only to find out that i had blown my transmission after all that pushing you were doing,. You shook your head at me and said da--- cuz you done blown your transmission and you did all that pushing for nothing lol. We both laughed afterwards. This and many more sweet memories of you playing baseball. You will be missed but never ever forgotten. My deepest condolences to my family.
