

Carolyn Corker Hunter

February 13, 1941 - December 10, 2016

Carolyn Corker Hunter, daughter of the late Melvin Lewis Corker and Edith Mae Harris of Beaverdam, VA, passed away peacefully at home December 10, 2016 after a brief battle with brain cancer. Carol had recently retired from Accounting by Carol, the business she had owned and operated for 30 years. She is survived by her children Tonja Hunter, Dane Hunter and his wife Bonnie, and her sister Mildred Garcia. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Brandon, Cody and Dana, her great-grandson Connor and numerous cousins. A memorial service will be held 3 p.m. Sunday, December 18th at Zion Christian Church, Beaverdam, VA. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ Carol was truly an inspiration. No matter what health obstacles she encountered, she met them head on, determined to continue her path of self-sufficiency. We also appreciated her sharp mind as she handled taxes for a seemingly never-ending entourage of loyal customers, including us. We will miss her, but will always be inspired by her determination to live life on her own terms.

*With our sincere sympathy,

“ Carol was a wonderful friend. We met at the pharmacy in the 1990's and ate dinner there often in the cafe. We had wonderful conversations and lasting memories. I will miss her greatly.
Blessings and prayers to the family! -Bonnie Deane-
