

Catherine Seitz Hargan

July 13, 1954 - November 5, 2022

Catherine Seitz Hargan, 68, passed away quietly in her home after a lengthy battle with brain cancer on the morning of November 5th, 2022. She is survived by her husband, Ricky Hargan, children, Erin Cramer and Ryan Hargan, grandson, Logan Cramer, and her beloved blue heelers, Bode and Bailey.

Catherine was valedictorian of her high school class of 1972 and graduated Virginia Commonwealth University with a Masters of Social Work. After graduating she returned to her home county of New Kent to work in the Department of Social Services and serve the communities of New Kent and Charles City. She later became a field instructor for VCU's School of Social Work in New Kent and trained many aspiring social workers while continuing to give back and serve her community.

After leaving the VCU field training program Cathy went to work for Bon Secours Hospice where she found her penultimate calling. She was beloved by both fellow coworkers and patients alike. She has been one of the few Social Workers to receive the SR. Elizabeth Durney, CBS Award for Excellence in Care of the Dying in 2016 from Bon Secours. She retired in 2019 with great admiration and respect from those at Bon Secours Hospice. A celebration of life service will be held 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. April 2, 2023 at the Historic Jasmine Plantation, 4500 N. Courthouse Road, Providence Forge, VA 23140.

In lieu of flowers the family has requested donations be made to New Kent

“ I was so sorry to hear the news that Cathy had passed, but at the same time I was glad for her and also her family. I went to school with her from the 1st grade until we graduated in 1972! Cathy was a sweetheart in school and I am sure she lived her life the same way! I have always had a hard time dealing with death. Whether it's family or friend it's all the same to me. The feeling is all about my loss!
This is when I rely on my Christian faith to get me through it. I am glad for Cathy but sorry for my loss!
