I have known Catherine since I was in my twenties, our boys grew up together. She was one of the sweetest, most gentle kindest and remarkable women I have ever met. I have never heard her speak an unkind word about anyone. She was the best wife and best mother and best friend anyone could have. God blessed her family and anyone who knew her. She was a real lady. You dont find many anymore and she truly was a real gentle lady who graced every one with her presence.
