

Mr. Charles Emmitt Bristow

February 16, 1942 - January 5, 2013

Charles Emmitt Bristow, age 70, left this world for heaven after a long illness. He loved being with his family, spending time at the Moose, playing cards, coffee in the morning, hunting, being out on the water, and watching old westerns.

He was the son of Dorothy and Emmitt Bristow, and was preceded in death by his parents and sisters, Lorraine Gontkovic, and Mae Brooks; and his niece, Kristy Jenkins. He is survived by his two daughters, Shelly Galan of Chesterfield, Theresa Dolan, and husband Collie, of Amelia; his son, Charles E Bristow Jr. of Hanover; three sisters, Mary Leigh Dunn, Carolyn Green, Robin Rogers and her husband, George; one brother, William Bristow; seven grandchildren, Matthew Galan, Samantha Galan, Brittany Dolan, Noah Galan, Abigail Mcnair, Savannah Galan, Summer Dolan, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A celebration of life will be 2 PM Wednesday January 9 at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th Street, West Point, VA.

“ To the family of Charles Emmitt Bristow,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I know times like these are difficult, it was for me when I lost my grandmother. One scripture that comforted me was Revelation 21:4, where it mentions death and sickness will no longer exist. There are many other scriptures that verify is scripture.

But what about those that have already been lost in death, like Mr. Bristow? Well, in Matthew 5:3, it mentions that there will be ones that go to heaven. But more importantly, Matthew 5:5 mentions that the mild tempered ones will inherit the earth, and at Psalms 37:11 it says the meek ones will posses the earth. So who goes to heaven and who stays on earth? If you contact me at jaymin08@icloud.com I will be happy to answer those questions.

*Sincerely,
Jaymin*
