

Charles "Butch" Dixon Sr.

May 26, 1945 - March 5, 2022

Charles G. "Butch" Dixon, Sr., 76, passed away March 5, 2022. Born May 26, 1945 to the late Emmett and Catherine Dixon, Butch had a 44-year career at the West Point paper mill before retiring in 2009. "Trigger", as he was often called, gladly served the West Point community for 35 years as a volunteer with the West Point Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad, but always made time to play golf, watch Nascar, and be with family.

Butch is survived by his wife of 57 years, Wanda Gayle Dixon; two sons, Chuck Dixon (Theresa) and Keith Dixon; granddaughter, Shelby Dixon Smith (Nicholas); sister, Rita Ames (Lewis); twin brother, Don Hogge (Linda); and his beloved dog, Bentley.

A celebration of Butch's life will be held 2 PM, Saturday, March 12th at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th St., West Point, VA. The family will receive friends from 12:30 to 2 PM, just prior to the service. Memorial contributions can be made to the American Cancer Society, <https://donate3.cancer.org>.

“ I did not know Uncle Butch that well, but he always struck me as someone who didn't expect the world to owe him anything, and rather focused on what he could do to make it a better place. He measured his worth not by what he earned, but by what he gave. The world is poorer without his able hands and generous spirit.

“ *Wanda and Family: We send our deepest sympathy to all of you. It was just a few months ago Wanda that I was invited into yours and Butch's home to visit. I thank you for allowing me to come and I thank God Butch and I had the time to converse. It is our prayer that God will comfort the family, friends and fellow firefighters during this time and for time to come. I thank God he allowed our paths to cross. RIP My Friend.
