“ I worked for Charles in late 90s. What a great man and human being. He taught me not only to be an electrician but a lot about being a man. He loved his family above all else. He is and always will be The Romex King. A master of his trade. A true Mentor, And a man I am so proud and honored to have passed through my life. I will miss you Charles. I meant so many times to stop by and see you. I will on the other side lord willing. You pass through my mind time and again. I am blessed to know you. My heart goes out to Dan, Lor, and Sherri. Jimmy. God bless you each and every one. You have another angel on the other side now waiting.

“ I was so sorry to see that Charles passed. Charles and I started school together and also graduated together. We didn't get to see each other very often after we graduated but when we did I always enjoyed the visit. The last class reunion we had is when I found out that he was battling cancer and just didn't feel up to coming. Well, here I go once again, wishing I had made a effort to contact a friend! My thoughts and prayers for the family.

“ Prayers to the family. Losing a younger brother is painful. A little piece of your childhood goes with him. May God keep you all in His warm embrace and give you peace.

“ Having shared our school years together, I’ve always known Charles (Chizzy to us) to be kind, friendly, and just one great guy. He never changed over the years, except maybe more so. I am so heartbroken for all of you, his family, as I know he’ll leave a great loss in your hearts. Love and Prayers~ Theresa Stuck Morris
