“ Lacy, Mrs. Hayes, Amanda, Joe, Meghan, Terry and all of the other family members and friends Charles touched, my heart aches for you because I know how it feels to lose a wonderful Father named Charles. Charles and I were in Sunday School together, before we started first grade together. Worked together at Betsy Ross while we were in school and he came to the mill after I did. My dear friend called me and we talked before he had surgery a few years ago and he said Lacy was cooking him his favourite meal, Country Fried Steak and gravey cause he wouldn't be able to eat that for a while. He so, loves all of his girls, Lacy you know you were always included in "My Girls". I won't be able to call Charles on August 22 to call him an ol fart and tell him he's older than me, and get his answer back..... Girl, only for a day! I am going to miss him so much. I pray that the Good Lord will bring you comfort in knowing how much Charles was loved and respected.

“ Mrs. Haynes, Terry, Lacy & family: I was saddened to hear the news about Charles and I want to provide you my deepest condolences. Charles was one of my best friends growing up as we had a boatload of good times and memories during our high school years and thereafter. Whether it be playing in tennis tournaments, camp at Eagle Eyrie, fishing together along with Kent Fifer and Robbie Davis, camping out, partying, or shopping, Charles would always brighten my day (and everyone else's) with his hilarious "takes" on what was going on around him.

Although Charles was quite the comedian, it became evident early on that he had a soft side where he cared deeply about the feelings and well-being of this friends and family. Although I hadn't seen Charles in many years, I will always treasure the friendship we shared. Rest in Peace, my good friend!
