

Charles "Ed" Hazelwood

December 5, 1966 - May 29, 2018

Charles "Ed" Hazelwood, 51, of Lanexa, VA passed away Tuesday May 29, 2018. He was a faithful husband, loving son, caring brother and was devoted to his family. Ed was the calming force that held his family together. He was also a loyal friend, dropping anything to go lend a helping hand. Ed's hobbies included hunting, fishing, paddle boarding, kayaking and wood working. He seriously had a palm tree addiction. Ed loved the Outer Banks and his family beach house. His favorite place to eat with his family was the Kill Devil Grill. If you had the opportunity to be with Ed in the OBX, you could count on having Blackened Tuna and Beer Can Shrimp. Ed enjoyed life, family members and many friends. In turn, all those who knew Ed, loved him.

He was preceded in death by his father, Charles L. Hazelwood.

Ed is survived by his wife, Carolyn S. Hazelwood, whom he was together with for 21 years and married for 18; three beautiful children, Cole, CJ and Addie; his mother, Alwayne Hazelwood; and a brother, Darrell Hazelwood. A memorial service will be held 11 a.m. Saturday June 2, 2018 at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge VA 23140. Burial to follow in Liberty Baptist Church Cemetery.

“ Dear Carolyn,

I am so sorry to hear about Ed! I remember him always coming with you to the twins' parent /teacher conferences, and always being so interested and easy to talk to.

Please know I am thinking of your family, and give C.J. and Addie a big hug from their first grade teacher.

*Love to you,

“ I am so sorry to read this. My heart breaks for Ed's family, wife and children, Alwayne and Darrell. Ed and I grew up together. His laugh was infectious, his smile warming. Ed was one of the most kindest individuals I ever knew. Please know you all will be in my thoughts and prayers. May you find peace, comfort and strength through your faith, family, and friends.
