“ Sorry for your loss Edward and family. I remember hanging around the farm in the early 80's. Riding on the tractors and motorcycle. Always remember your dad in the green Volkswagen beetle. Good picture of him on the river.

“ *My wonderful neighbor!
I'll never forget you Mr.C !
You were seriously the strongest little old man I've ever seen in my life for your age ! You have gave me some close call heart attack moments*

Telling me oh honey I've been doing it for years but Thank you though ... I'll never forget Daisy getting out running to you & me asking has anyone seen her you said oh that's what that little white blur was lol ... so many times stopping by on the way out checking on you only for you to say I got this ... It's so strange not seeing you going by here daily beeping at me on my porch ... or just stopping in to chat ... You leave behind a good legacy for these young folks to learn listening to Travis's stories about the firewood piles and growing up on the farm over the years he sure learned so many things from you and my heart truly hurts for your family they truly loved you Charlie more than you ever know!!!

Beckie, Linda, Debra, Edward and Butch, I just come across this and I am so sorry to hear that Charlie passed away. I still remember the first time I met him, it was in the evening and he was going fishing. He told me my hair was long but if I was ok with Beckie, I was ok with him....He was like a father to me and I have never seen a man work so hard from sun up to sun down in my life. Old fashioned is a term that I like to use when I talk of him. Charlie and your family did so much for me and I have always been grateful for that and will always consider you guys family. When I had nowhere to go, he opened his home to me numerous times. I have many wonderful memories and am glad that we had the time together. I remember the 2 Mustangs Beckie wanted that were pieces of junk but Charlie kept them running and drove himself, the green truck and the Jetta with the brick somewhere underneath just to keep it going, helluva a mechanic and a helluva a man. They don't make men like him anymore and he will be missed. I am so sorry for your loss.

Jody, my mom asked me if I saw your message here about my dad so I figured I would read it. Thank you so much for the kind words about my dad. He really did like you ok but was just cautious of your intentions about me . He was a over protective dad at times, anyway I hope your doing fine and maybe our paths will cross again someday . Love you as always- Rebecca
