“ When I was about 17 or 18 I use to have the biggest crush on Charlie... Though we never dated we had a lot of fun times hanging out together. He loved to tease me and could really push my buttons ...lol...years later when I was separated he asked me out, but it just wasn't the right time....I loved Charlie. He was a good person who I really enjoyed being around. I am so sorry for the family's loss. I pray you all have peace in knowing that he is in a much better place. God does amazing things and he has Charlie right where he belongs....sad that I know I will never see him again, but joyful knowing he is at peace...God bless all the family

“ Charlie was a good person in heart, mind, and spirit as he would give you the shirt off his back just for the asking ! We hung around together in our younger years and he was always full of himself as he acted out the part of being the BAD one when reality he was the cream puff so to say because he was just that kinda person. He was the vegetable hustler and would make sure when you bought from him you always were giving a great bargain ! There will always be fond memories of ole Charlie as now he is at peace not only with himself but with God as well !!!

“ Charlie was a great guy! He used to come in the West Point Restaurant to eat. He ordered his food then took his watch off, phone, I can't remember everything but he put everything in his own order while he ate. Some things you just never forget! He was an awesome and great friend!
