

Charlotte Faye Duncan

May 27, 1953 - October 8, 2025

Charlotte Faye Duncan (née Otey), 72, passed away peacefully of natural causes on October 8, 2025, in Virginia. She was born on May 27, 1953, in Williamsburg, Va, and lived a life marked by devotion to her family, steadfast faith, and a tireless work ethic.

Charlotte was the daughter of Shirley and Horace Otey and grew up in a close-knit family alongside her two brothers, Ronald Otey and Daniel Otey (Connie), and her sister, Melissa McCall (David). Her upbringing in Williamsburg laid the foundation for the values she carried throughout her life—faith, perseverance, and love for family.

A devoted mother, Charlotte, raised four sons, Douglas Duncan, Jeremy Duncan (Arlene), Wesley Whitehurst (Brandy), and Mark Whitehurst. Her role as a mother was central to her identity, and she poured her heart into nurturing and guiding her children with unwavering support.

Charlotte's greatest joy came from being a grandmother. She cherished every moment spent with her six grandchildren, April, Shayne, Matthew, Michael, Natalie, and Lindsay. Her love for them was boundless and evident in the way she lit up whenever they were near, or when speaking to them.

She was known for her deep Christian faith, which guided her daily life. A hard-working woman through and through, Charlotte took pride in maintaining a clean home—a reflection of the care she put into everything she did. She also found comfort in the companionship of her pets and enjoyed relaxing with her favorite television shows during quiet moments.

Charlotte was preceded in death by her parents, Shirley and Horace Otey, as well as her husband, Mack Duncan. Her memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. May it bring comfort to all who mourn her passing.
