“ so sorry for such a great loss. Cheryl was such a great person. We went to church and school together we made many memories together. She loved the Lord with her whole heart soul, mine and body. I pray that God wraps his loving arms around each one at such a difficult time and just hold onto all the sweet memories because one day if we are faithful to God, we will all be together because I know she's in heaven, rejoicing with the angels. Love you my sweet friend.
