“ I can't believe you're gone Chris... It's been a while since I've seen you but you were always super cool and you had a happiness that I wish I could match. You were adventurous and fun, and your humor topped everything.

Chris, you were one of those guys who could make anything funny, and always kept us pushing through. That's something we need more of today. It's so depressing to hear that you're gone, but in my heart I know you are still with us. Fly high my brother, you deserve that place in heaven, even though you had to move in before your time. I'm sorry you went so young... :(

“ I didn't know Chris very well, but he and my younger brother were very close in high school. They both graduated from New Kent in the class of 2015 and I was so proud of both of them. The world was their oyster! Hearing that Chris had passed away was surreal. Although I wasn't as close to him as my brother was, the news pained my heart greatly. He was such a sweet kid with a bright future. I send my condolences to all who love him and I pray they will find peace. Chris will never be forgotten and will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

“ Chris it's extremely hard to lose such a good friend, It feels like just yesterday we were trading pokemon cards, and racing each other on our bicycles in your back yard, I still remember that one time we were racing, and you ran into the pine tree, and your dad came and took you inside, and I walked your bike back up to the house, oh I how I miss those days, you'll always be in my heart man, I hope Your doing great in heaven, I love you brother. I hope to see you again one day. Rest in peace

“ Sincere condolence to Jenny, Chris, Catilyn and Family. May GOD wrap his arms around you for comfort. Chris was a young man with manners, intelligence and respect. As young adults, Chris and Chelsea shared love for each other for two years. Our family had become close to Chris. Many memories of all the good times. Will never be forgotten. RIP
