“ Chris was more than a friend to Tracy and I. He was our son. On the day we lost our son Tracy Jr. (Trae), Chris, TreVon, Rodney and Coy (BJ) came to us and presented themselves to us as sons. The five of them had made a pact that should anything happen to any one of them, the other 4 would go to the family of the other and do this. From that day on, all four of them have been family. We are proud God Parents to Addison, an honor which we will definitely take seriously and make sure that Chris’s mind can be at rest concerning the wellbeing of his family. We know that he and Chris are reunited (definitely not the reunion any of us had in mind). But as strong as their bond was here on earth, I know it is a thousand times stronger in Heaven.

I also know that once Trae got situated in the clouds, we began receiving signs, messages, songs, tricks, odd happenings, and almost conversational dreams. With both Trae and Chris working TOGETHER in heaven, we all might want to hold on, I have a feeling that some very interesting, not easily explained things are about to happen...

Our hearts ache and hurt right now, but our love for Chris and Trae will live forever...

“ Chris was the kind of friend that everyone would want to have. When I think back to my high school years Chris is in every memory. He was the sweetest most well mannered goofy Ford loving man! My heart breaks for Mary, Addison and his entire family. Chris you're loved and missed by so many. I know Jayme and Tracy were waiting for you at those heavenly gates. Keeping his family and friends in my prayers during this difficult time.
