“ Judy, I am so sorry for your loss. I have not seen Eddie since I left New Kent in 1973, but he has been in my thoughts many times through the years. I was with your family at the airport when he left for the war. We watched him as he walked across the tarmac, so handsome in his uniform. He climbed the steps to the airplane, and when he reached the top, he turned and saluted. I have never forgotten that image of him. Every time I see a soldier salute, I remember Eddie. My thoughts and prayers are with your whole family.

“ He's in a much better place, but we will all remember him with love! How to describe Eddie? Sometimes the best friend ever, sometimes his own worst enemy, but always loved. Sympathy for your loss, but happy you're at peace now! The Bloxom Family
