“ Oh, Karen...I was so sorry and sad to read in the paper of the loss of your dear husband. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I am so glad that I got to meet him that time that he came to one of our Scholastic Bowl matches. He was certainly blessed with a wonderful, kind and uplifting wife in you. I wish you could have had more years together. I do believe in the resurrection promised at John 5: 28, 29 and the wonderful hope of righteous people living forever on the earth as mentioned at Psalm 37: 29 and Mathew 5: 5. But until then, I know you will miss him so much! May your memories, your family and friends, and God bring a measure of comfort to you each day.

Sincere condolences Karen. I met you once when you and Cliff visited my home in Chestnut Hill Philadelphia years ago. Your memories of Cliff's solid fine character will aid you through; I will keep him in my memories very fondly and I am so sad about your loss. He was a good friend to me in the '60's and '70's, and I hope that I was the same to him. John Michel johnmichel19118@yahoo.com
