

Constance Hamparian

June 8, 1921 - August 31, 2011

Constance Monjeau Hamparian of Toano, VA died at the age of 90 on August 31, 2011 at her home. Born and raised in New Bedford, Massachusetts, as the daughter of Moise and Yvonne Monjeau, she moved to Newport News at the age of 24 to work for the Army in the Water Works division during WW II. She then moved to Langley Field in Hampton to work in intelligence where she met her husband. She lived a long and full life traveling the world supporting the thirty year US Air Force career of her late husband, John (Ltc ret.); raising her three children and making friends while moving about the US and Europe. After her husband retired from Langley Air Force base in 1972, they stayed in Hampton and then built their dream home in Toano in 1980. Connie was a wonderful hostess and was never happier than when entertaining family and friends with her outstanding cooking. She was a passionate reader and a charter member of St. Olaf's Catholic Church in Norge, VA. Connie was preceded in death by her father and mother, Moise and Yvonne Monjeau; her husband, John; and her brothers, Bertrand and Gerald Monjeau. She is survived by her sister-in-law, Betty Monjeau of South Darmouth, MA; her brother-in-law and his wife, Harry and Dorothy Hamparian of Arlington, MA; three children, Christine of Norfolk, VA, Phyllis Farson and her husband, Michael of Williamsburg and San Antonio, TX, and her son, Bertrand (Randy) of Williamsburg, VA. She is also survived by nine nieces and nephews living throughout the US, and her dear friend, Myrtle Sweeney. Friends are invited to visit Sunday, September 4th, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at Vincent Funeral Home, 9923 Pocahontas Trail, Providence Forge, VA. Mass of Christian Burial at 9 a.m., Monday at St. Olaf's Catholic Church, 104 Norge Lane, Norge, VA, 23188. Internment in Arlington National Cemetery at a later date. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Olaf's Building fund at the above address.
