

Cornelia "Jill" Bond Gardner Moore

January 3, 1923 - October 14, 2012

Cornelia Bond Gardner Moore (Jill) died on October 14, 2012, at the Dominion Village Senior Living Facility in Williamsburg. Jill was born on January 3, 1923 in the Five Forks area. She was the first of eleven children born to John H. and Clay Bond Gardner, both of whom preceeded her in death. She was also preceeded in death by her husband, Francis W. Moore and her only child, Charles W. Moore; also five brothers, Delaware B., Robert M., Neal E., Henry C., and Daniel W. Gardner; two sisters, Jacqueline G. Nuttall, and Christine G. Bell; and two half-sisters, Thelma G. and Frances G. Williams.

Jill is survived by one granddaughter, Shani Moore; and two great-granddaughters, Celia and Una Horne, all of California. Other survivors are one brother, John H. Gardner, Jr.; two sisters, Elizabeth G. Davis and Dale G. Teagle; and a large extended family.

Jill grew up in Norge, Virginia and graduated from Toano High School.

Following graduation, she moved to the Newport News/Hampton area, where she lived until this year when she moved back to Williamsburg to be near her family. She worked in the accounting field most of her life.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, October 18, at the Olive Branch Christian Church, 7643 Richmond Road, Williamsburg, VA 23188.

Interment will be private.

Following the service, a reception for family and friends will be held in the Education Building at Olive Branch.

For the loving and kind treatment and care Jill received, the family wishes to express its sincere appreciation and gratitude to the staff of the Dominion Village Senior Facility as well as to the volunteers and staff of the Sentara Hospice/Home Care Services.

In lieu of flowers, please support the Alzheimers Foundation or a favorite charity.
