“ I can't remember a time in my life that I didn't have my Aunt Dale. She was one of 13 siblings (my father being the 2nd oldest boy) and we always visited family on the weekends as far back as I can recall. Sometimes it took a while to get back on the rotation as there were so many! As a teenager, I babysat for Jason. The other three were too old for me to babysit, but he still needed a sitter. :) My mother and I and aunt Dale also played on an adult volley ball league around that time. As time passed, we all grew and went out own way but I always tried to come back and see my family when I could. I was fortunate enough to visit Aunt Dale last year with some of my siblings. I was saddened to hear of her passing, but know she is celebrating in heaven with all of the others that passed before her. Rest in peace, Aunt Dale. You are loved and will be missed.

“ When we were very young we lost touch with our father after our parents divorce. Aunt Dale would keep in touch with our mother so that we always had an address for him. In my 20's Jackie and I went to Aunt Dale's house and she invited Dad to come for supper. We spent a few hours together for the first time in many years. Fast forward a few years. After I was married and had 3 children (I would have been in my 40s), my husband was asked to preach in a church in Newport News. I contacted Aunt Dale and asked if she thought any of the Gardner family would be interested in getting together. She arranged for this large extended family to have a potluck dinner and my father came. At that point we connected with him enough that he wound up moving to GA so that he could spend time with his family there. I've never known for sure if that was the best decision because he always missed his family in Virginia. I am grateful for that reconnection though and contribute it completely to the effort of this loving and caring woman. My dad said I resembled Aunt Dale physically and I would hope to resemble her in other ways as well. Rest in Peace, Aunt Dale, I'll always be grateful for your part in my life. “ Had the joy of being next door neighbor to Miss Dale for years in Mirror Lakes before she sold her house and moved into an apartment. I always loved walking over and catching her sitting at the opening of her garage door, reading while enjoying the cool breeze. She was an avid reader-- I shared some of my books with her, knowing that she would quickly devour and return them promptly. What a blessing to have known her and getting to know her extended family. She shared some of her favorite dishes -- I thought she was an awesome cook; however, she acted surprised when I would praise her creations. I will always treasure the many conversations and I am grateful to have had an one of the best neighbors ever. Thank you Miss Dale for memories that I will remember as a gift from God! Love you, my friend.
