

Daniel B. Smith

May 16, 1956 - December 9, 2015

Daniel B. Smith, 59, of Charles City, formerly of Williamsburg and Charlottesville, was called from this life on December 9, 2015. He was a beloved brother and uncle, who loved animals and all of nature.

Dan was preceded in death by his father and mother, Boyd and Gladys Smith, and a beloved brother, Donald Smith. He is survived by his sister, Nancy Clendenning (Earl); sister-in-law, Lynn Smith; nephew, Edward Clendenning (Sandra); niece, Nancy Lindsey (Chris); great-nieces, Abigail Lindsey and McKenna Clendenning; great-nephews, Daniel Lindsey and Edward Clendenning II.

Dan's great passions were archeology and the University of Virginia, where he received his master's degree. Donations in his honor can be made to Jamestown Rediscovery Foundation, 1365 Colonial Pkwy, Jamestown, VA 23081, in the honor of Dan Smith Field School Scholarship.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Dan was a very popular archaeologist at Jamestowne.
For we volunteer Interpreters, he was always, welcoming and eager to share info on the latest discoveries.
He was multi -talented even an author.
All of us will miss his smile.
Last year he volunteered to speak at Warsaw Virginia for a Tidewater Virginia Historical Society gathering and was terrific.
A sad loss for all of us.
Joe Burkart
President-Tidewater Virginia Historical Society

Joe Burkart - December 20, 2015 at 07:34 AM