“ I am one of Uncle Davids' many nieces, my mother is Ruth Clawson Fowlkes. I will always cherish my memories of Uncle David. I remember when we were little and we would go to Grandma and Grandpa's house in the country,! Uncle David would be there and he would hold out his arm and let us swing on it ... I always thought wow he is so strong, he would play with us on the worry gig and push us in the tire swing under that big old tree, he was a great uncle He will so be missed by all of us. You have left us with so many memories and happy times that can never be erased. you will never be forgotten Uncle David. I know your with your Momma and Daddy and sister's and brother's who have gone home and that you are in a better place, but I will always, always remember you and now , Heaven has a new angel.

I love you Uncle David ...

“ I remember David because he dated my sister Dorothy Milby for a while. A very nice person. He and my husband Preston Powell use to play music together. This was in the late fifties.
