“ I love you. You are my heart and soul, my sun and moon, God answered my prayers just not the way I wanted. He has taken your pain and given you wings. I saw it in your face that you were at peace when I said my goodbyes. I feel your presence and know that you are watching over me.

“ Our last message. . I must have read it a hundred times over the last few days.. you were more like a brother to me then a cousin.. I have also sit and thought of so many of our times together.. and just like when Gran and Dale left,, my world will be forever changed with you gone. You always told me you loved me . It meant alot to me then.. and now to have those memories are priceless. Give my love to Gran and Unc. I will see y'all when I get there.
