“ David, each day since you left us I have tried to help Mom try to deal with all that she must take care of. While she seems so strong, her heart is shattered. There are so many things I wish I could say to you, but the words, tell people how much you love them while they are here, keep haunting me. I love you, David. I always have, I always will. I am so sorry for all you suffered through and I keep thinking you didn't really want to admit how ill you really were. I pray you are finally at peace little brother.

“ David had such a ready laugh and knew how to do so many things- he had an eye for design, understood wood, and carpentry, he would try his hand at fixing anything. A good cook and grill master, David was always helpful ! May he rest in the loving arms of God!

I sent a text to David today asking how he was doing and could he help with a plumbing problem. Hadn't been in touch for awhile so when he didn't respond later this evening, I got a bad feeling. I found this obit and did not really want to believe it. I was one of his customers whom he helped whenever my home would have a plumbing problem. He was such a nice guy and this saddens me that I did not have another chance to chat with him. I am very sorry for your loss. One of those good guys who never overcharged for his services. He will be missed. May he rest in peace.
