

Dawn Aday Lieder

January 20, 1940 - May 4, 2022

Dawn Aday Lieder, 82, of New Kent, VA graduated to heaven May 4, 2022 at 5:50 AM. She loved to laugh, was a talented seamstress, but above all, was a strong and faithful prayer warrior. Dawn's greatest desire was that everyone would come to have the same saving knowledge of Jesus Christ as she. John 3:16, her favorite scripture, states, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have everlasting life." We find comfort in knowing she is relishing in that promise right now!

Dawn was preceded in death by her husband, Max R. Lieder. She is survived by their three sons, Neil Lieder (Kelli), Eric Lieder (LeeAnn) and Glen Lieder (Theresa); six grandchildren, Kristi, Nelson, Joel, Rebecca, Sarah and Phillip; and seven great-grandchildren, Samuel, Callie, Nathan & Natalie, Jaxon, Loie and Landri.

A graveside service will be held at 3 PM, Friday, May 13th at Washington Memorial Park, Sandston, VA. The Celebration of life service and reception will follow at 4 PM at the Glendale Ruritan Club, 6188 Charles City Rd., Richmond, VA 23231.

Dawn loved her family, but she also loved her church family. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the New Hope Church Building Fund,

NewHopeFamily.us, or mailed to 6475 Parrish Rd., Providence Forge, VA
23140.

“ I met Dawn (Grammee) last year and was blessed to be able to spend time with her a few times. She was full of joy, smiles and stories of her children. She loved her children and grandchildren, often sharing stories about them. She talked about Florida and wanting to go there to visit her son's there. She talked about her children here and the joy they brought to her - which was shown in her smiles as she spoke of them all. She talked about photos, paintings, and other items in her home that was made for her or given to her by this one or that one. She always smiled when I came in and made me feel as if she had known me a lifetime, and never failed to say I love you. Something we all don't tell each other enough. It was obvious how much she loved not only her kids but all kids. I remember the cold day in December she was sitting at the food pantry, outside the tent where she wanted to be with all those outside - and would not take her eye off the children playing in the play yard - making sure they were all safe. She smiled so brightly to everyone as they came into the tent and offered them her coffee, saying its warm. Dawn had such a great love for her little cat and it was mutual because that sweet baby would not leave her side. Their bond was so strong. When my granddaughter came to visit with me one time - "Grammee" was so happy to have a little visitor and just wanted to give her treats and hugs. What I will always remember is the glow from Grammee's face, even on days she was not feeling her best - she would still perk up for visitors and all you could see, and hear from her - was GODS LOVE. Grammee is in Heaven for sure today, and is with my daughter Shelby - that we talked about a few times. I am sure she has told her already how much she is missed here and that we all send our love.

DawnSomething I pray her family knows is that Dawn only wanted them all to be happy and safe, and to know God. She is planning on seeing you all again their one day. As a mom who lost a daughter I know you all will grieve - even knowing where Dawn is. While we lose our loved ones on earth - our love for them lives on and we grieve. But that is ok for God gave us tears to cry, a heart that will break and A promise of HIS LOVE - that will give us a way through. Faith Hope and Love, and the greatest of these is LOVE - the love we have for one another, the love we have for God, but greater is the LOVE GOD HAS for each of us.....that same Love that will see you through if you continue to lean on Him. I will miss your smiles and our little chats, visiting you and Candy.....See you again soon in Heaven.
